Letter from Mrs. Wise

Dear Parents,

Students have earned another 50 Petey Praise points! They have now earned 250 points!

Students chose to celebrate with No Homework Day this Wednesday.

Timeline projects are due next Monday, December 14. Students will be presenting the projects throughout the week during our Social Studies block.

Thank you for your participation in the Jones Dairy Holiday Food Drive! Our class brought in 97 items, and as a school, we were able to donate over 3,000 can food items!

Students visited the Book Fair to make wish lists last Friday, December 4. Students will be allowed to go to the book fair to purchase items this week. The Book Fair will run through Wednesday, December 9.

Students designed their own experiments this quarter. They will be completing their experiments on Tuesday, December 8, so they can finish up their lab reports.

Lastly, Case 21 Testing for reading and math will take place next week on Tuesday and Wednesday. Please make sure students get a good night's sleep and eat a healthy breakfast!

Thank you for all you do to help your child succeed! ☺

Sincerely,
Mrs. Wise
